

ART

ART 213. INTRO TO DRAMA.

This course will explore the elements, genres, and history of Drama internationally and in the Caribbean. The students will learn the elements of writing a monologue and a short play. They will see a play on stage and by means of guidelines critique/evaluate the play. By the end of the course, the students would have been exposed to the world of drama.

3 credits

ART 214. DRAMA PRODUCTION.

A study of the tradition and development of theater art with an emphasis on the elements required to develop, produce, and evaluate theatrical productions. Student's design, direct and produce a play for the community.

3 credits

