

PART-TIME FACULTY: DUTCH INSTRUCTOR (DUT 101)

The University of St. Martin is seeking a qualified and dynamic Dutch Language Instructor to teach Elementary Dutch I (DUT 101) in the upcoming Fall Semester. This course is designed for students with no prior knowledge of Dutch and aims to develop a strong foundation in listening, speaking, reading, and writing.

START DATE: FALL SEMESTER 2025 – MONDAY, AUGUST 18, 2025

APPLICATION DEADLINE: FRIDAY, JULY 25, 2025

COURSE DESCRIPTION:

DUT 101 – Elementary Dutch I (4 credits) introduces students to the Dutch language with a focus on aural training and fundamental language concepts. The course includes practical exercises to build a basic, active command of the language and prepare students for further study.

QUALIFICATIONS:

- Bachelor's degree in Dutch Language, Education, Linguistics, or a related field
- Demonstrated proficiency in teaching Dutch as a second language
- Strong communication and classroom management skills
- Experience teaching at the tertiary level is a plus

TO APPLY:

Submit your CV, cover letter, and two references to juliana.shipley-hodge@usm.sx and management@usm.sx with the subject line: Application: DUT 101 Faculty .

Be a part of USM's mission to empower students through language and learning!

INTERESTED CANDIDATES ARE INVITED TO SEND THEIR CV AND COVER LETTER TO MANAGEMENT@USM.SX AND JULIANA.SHIPLEY-HODGE@USM.SX BY JULY 25TH, 2025.