

PART-TIME FACULTY: FRESHMAN DEVELOPMENT SEMINAR (FDS 100)

The University of St. Martin is seeking a passionate and student-centered Instructor to teach Freshman Development Seminar (FDS 100). This 1-credit course is designed to equip first-year students with essential academic and life skills to help them succeed throughout their college journey.

START DATE: FALL SEMESTER 2025 – MONDAY, AUGUST 18, 2025

APPLICATION DEADLINE: FRIDAY, JULY 25, 2025

COURSE DESCRIPTION:

FDS 100 introduces students to college life and supports their transition through practical topics such as self-assessment, time management, study strategies, decision-making, communication skills, personal development, and career awareness. The course plays a key role in building a strong foundation for student success and retention.

QUALIFICATIONS:

- Masters degree in Education, Psychology, Counseling, or a related field
- Experience in student advising, mentoring, or teaching first-year college students
- Strong facilitation and interpersonal skills
- Passion for student development and empowerment

TO APPLY:

Submit your CV, cover letter, and two references to juliana.shipley-hodge@usm.sx and management@usm.sx with the subject line: Application: FDS 100 Faculty .

Be a part of USM's mission to guide and empower students from day one of their academic journey!

INTERESTED CANDIDATES ARE INVITED TO SEND THEIR CV AND COVER LETTER TO MANAGEMENT@USM.SX AND JULIANA.SHIPLEY-HODGE@USM.SX BY JULY 25TH, 2025.